ABSTRACT

An annotated bibliography of library resource materials related to home economics includes print and audiovisual aids. Entries are presented according to the Dewey Decimal System, with price and grade level information provided. The resources are listed under the following categories; English books of fiction; English non-fiction books; library resources in French; pamphlets listed by source and by subject; periodicals; and audiovisual materials. Also provided are: a list of abbreviations and symbols used; a subject index, by courses and by areas in the Manitoba home economic curriculum; an index of special subjects of interest to home economics teachers and students; and an author and title index. The category of resource persons, as listed in the table of contents, is not included in the document. (LH)

PREFACE

This multi-media listing of library resource materials in the field of Home Economics has been prepared by a committee working with the Library Services Branch in cooperation with the Field Services Branch of the Department of Education.

Print and non-print materials have been included on a selective basis to provide maximum assistance to teachers in choosing library materials at the professional level and at all age and ability levels.

All entries are classified in school library arrangements with significant cross references. Each entry gives full purchasing information, with grade range, and descriptive annotation.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

The Department of Education gratefully acknowledges the interest, expertise and long-term commitment of the teachers who reviewed books, films, and other audiovisual materials, and who visited many libraries.

Committee members: Mrs. Gerdine Crawford, St. James Collegiate; Mrs. Suzanne Ford, John Taylor Collegiate; Mrs. Lila Goodspeed, Miles Macdonnel Collegiate; Mrs. Sandra Hobday, Lord Selkirk Regional Secondary School; Miss Elva Humphries, Winnipeg School Division No. 1; Mrs. Linda Liberta, Ness Junior High School; Mrs. Joyce MacMartin, Mrs. Peggy Prendergast, and Mrs. Margaret McKay, Elmwood High School; Sr. Marie Mélançon, Collège de St. Boniface; Miss Grace Parasiuk, River East Collegiate; Mrs. Rosemary Shamess and Miss Phyllis Thomson, Kelvin High School; Mrs. Effie Van Helmholt, Technical Vocational High School; Miss Doreen White, Sturgeon Creek Regional Secondary School; Mrs. Peggy Whiteway, Vincent Massey Collegiate; Mrs. Carol Lowe, Lord Selkirk Regional Secondary School; and Mrs. Eleanor Smith, Committee Chairman, Grant Park High School. These persons each made a vital contribution to the publication.

Mrs. Louise Stearns, B.A., M.A. in L.S., gave the Library Services Branch invaluable help in preparing initial and final drafts. Mrs. Wanda Bowey, B.A., B.Ed., prepared citations for non-print materials, and Mrs. Mona Cox, Co-ordinator for Consumer Information and Education, Manitoba Consumers' Bureau, was the source for consumer materials. Miss Joan Swain typed the manuscript.

In particular we express our most sincere appreciation for professional assistance from Mrs. Isabel Wettlaufer, Supervisor of Home Economics for Manitoba in the Field Services Branch, and from her assistant, Mrs. Barbara Nelson, both of whom were directors of the project.

Grace A. d'Arcy
Supervisor of Library Services
